We will work with all this and more! Please join us in the process of taking down the illusory fences that limit our lives and enter new territory -- by identifying resistances, images, vicious circles, and by connecting the dots between cause and effect, so that you can be the positive creator you actually are.

"No wonder man is helpless. The first fence, then, is his belief that he cannot have what he might so easily have."

* Scholarships available based on demonstrated financial need and consultation with the Spiritual Director.
