

FAITH, DOUBT AND THE TRUE GOD

Save the date for a PATHWORK workshop with Brian O'Donnell

October 6, 7 and 8th 2017

Our relationship with doubt and faith is often murky, unexamined and unarticulated. What do we really have faith in? What do we authentically doubt? What is our image of God and what is the Reality of God? These questions are all related and have their home largely in the emotional body.

Together we will dare to experientially explore our real doubts {about self, life and God} and also dare to embody our grounded and realistic faith.

Can we have faith in our doubts, doubts in our faith, doubts in our doubts and faith in our faith?

The Lectures which will guide our inquiry will be
#221 Faith and Doubt and #52 God Image.

The weekend will be at the Steiner House in Ann Arbor, MI
Beginning Friday at 6:45 p.m. and ending Sunday at 12:00 p.m.

Cost: $ 245.00 plus lodging
