DEATH'S DOORWAY

Dying into Life, Living into Death

with Kim Rosen, California Pathwork

Author of Saved by a Poem

All the wisdom teachings of the world tell us that the key to life lies in the manner in which we meet death within and around us. You are invited to join us for a spacious week with Kim Rosen to explore all that emerges as we turn towards our own death, the deaths of our loved ones, and the "everyday opportunities to die" that abound in a life fully lived.

Dates:

Thursday, July 18th, 9:00 am – Wednesday, July 24th, 1:00 pm (lunch included)

Location:

Pendle Hill, a Quaker Retreat Center in Philadelphia, PA; Accessible by car, plane (Philadelphia International Airport) and train (Philadelphia 30th Street Station). Staying at Pendle Hill is a retreat experience in itself; the rooms are quiet, you can explore 23 beautiful acres of woodland trails, and all meals are consciously prepared using local and organic ingredients.

"I've been so woven into the mesh of my trivial errands, that only now do I begin to hear the mystery of dying everywhere." ~ Rumi, "Dying"

Kim is gifted in creating transformational environments based in her 40 years of immersion in the Pathwork wisdom, poetry, and other spiritual and psychotherapeutic traditions. Her work weaves ritual, poetry, movement, writing, breathwork, silence and deep sharing to create an exquisitely supportive sacred space where we will welcome the fears, losses, blessings and awakenings that come from opening to death within and around us.

I went to Kim Rosen's "Death's Door" last year, and it was undoubtedly the most powerful and profound retreat I've ever experienced. Invaluable for anyone dedicated to spiritual development.
